

APHA Briefing Note 17/16

New addresses for submission of Anthrax AN02 forms in England and Wales

Purpose

1. To inform Official Veterinarians that from 17 October 2016, completed AN02 forms (Certificate: Non Existence of the Presence of Anthrax) need to be sent to new addresses in England and Wales

Background

2. APHA working processes have been reviewed to ensure that sudden death cases (suspected Anthrax) are being delivered in the most efficient way. From 17 October in England and Wales, please submit AN02 forms for negative Anthrax immediately to:
 - England – APHA One Health Customer Service Centre, County Hall, Spetchley Road, Worcester, WR5 2NP
 - Wales - APHA Cymru/Wales, Penrallt, Caernarfon, Gwynedd, LL55 1EP
3. AN02 forms in Scotland should continue to be sent to the Head of Field Delivery Scotland (HFDS), and addressed to the local APHA office.

Further Information

4. The AN02 form (Certificate: Non Existence of the Presence of Anthrax) can be found on the APHA Vet Gateway.
